

COURSE DATA SHEET

| 2365 Level 2 Diploma in Electrical Installations

This course gives candidates with no previous electrical experience the competence required to become an electrician's mate and is the first step to becoming gold card qualified.

5 Units – 2 evenings a week over a 15-week period (Tuesday & Wednesday 6-9pm)

The Level 2 City & Guilds 2365 diploma in electrical Installations is designed to help those that want to get started within the world of electrical installation but don't currently have a job within the trade and can't get on the apprenticeship route. This evening route is ideal for those people who want to retrain but are in current employment during the day.

This course comprises of five units which are a mixture of practical and written work.

- Health & Safety
- Electrical Scientific Principles
- Electrical Installation technology
- Practical unit (bay build)
- Communication within the building industry

Fully inclusive of City & Guilds 2365 examination fees.

Refreshments available.

City & Guilds Electrical Installations Book 1 (Peter Tanner)

The Level 3 City & Guilds 2365 is the natural progression after completing this course.

Book suggestion

- On-Site Guide
(not included)

Equipment

This will be advised by the tutor in week 1

Duration & Cost

15 weeks
£2200 + VAT (£2,640)

